A Voice from the Northwest. The following address was prepared by a committee appointed by the conservative citizens of Chicago, Illinois. They give Great occasions and extraordinary perils demand of all true men corresponding action. That such an occasion and such perils are now upon American Christians and patriots, is perfectly taken judgment on the character and issues of the cortain. One State—one of the original Thirteen—has solemnly declared herself no longer a part of this government, and stands ready to make good that declaration by the sword. Five fathers were right in their views and treatment of or six others seems fast treading employed in this country should be carried on in such a spirit, or on such principles as to render it impossible for those who have hitherto borne their part in the history of the country, whose glory in statesmanship, in elequence, in philanthropy and arms, is a part of our glory, shall be namble to maintain a part of our glory, shall be namble to maintain the Union with us on terms that will be just and honorable in their own estimation. We do not believe that you desire to maintain the Union with you on terms that would be derogatory to your own honor and self-respect if you were in their place. They are as sensitive as yourselves to respectful consideration from those with whom they are associated. The original atatus of citizens and States in the Union our fathers made was that of absolute equality, not fathers made was that of absolute equality, not only in political rights, but courteous and rebeen formed at all otherwise. Those great and partern party, politicians, and platforms, and partian editors, we appeal to your Christian conscience and charitable and manly instincts, to say whether you will cling to a union with those whom you regard or treat as morally your inferiors, whether you will insist on their remaining in close amity with you after you have rendered it impossible by pretensions of lofty superiority and insulting denunciations, for them to like or bear you company? If they are barbarians and mere ruffians, you ought to sever your connection with them. If you speak to them, and speak of them; of you regard and treat them as ruffians and infaonly in political rights, but courteous and re- been formed at all otherwise.

It was a fact at the time of each of these great mass of the party lately frumphant in the events—it is a fact which has borne company with progress of the Union along all its peaceful, glorious career to this time, and it is a fact which will that party are profoundly astonished at the judgmany wao are opposed to slavery as a domestic and political institution, which they have accordingly excluded from their own commonwealths, and desired to exclude from the heritage of their other States of the North. And we believe the children. This too has been the case at every reaction will go on with increasing power, as the step and decisive development of our pational results become more and more apparent to those children. This too has been the case at every step and decisive development of our national career. And yet we have gone on together, through peace and through war—one in name and one in heart. Nor does it come of the fact that that there have been those in the South, or wherever slavery existed, who believed that it was a good thing—a beneficent institution—or that it was the best relation in which the two races, when thrown inextricably together, could exist for the time, or that it ought to be carefully guarded and perpetuated for any reasons. This, too, has always been a fact, since the first legal footbold was secured for it on the continent under the shadow of the English constitution.

A Financial View of Secession. her rope. She has carried out her threat Lincoln thus addressed Gen. Clinton: and seceded. She has set up housekeeping To his Excellency, Sir Henry Clinton: for herself, and a pretty mess she makes of problem of self-government. She can make a constitution for the government of the States which she proposes to "drag" after her, but she cannot devise ways and means will amount to a tax of thirty-three dollars upon every tax-payer within her borders. This will last her about a month, when she will either have to break or force another loan. Hence her great baste to "drag" Kentucky and other border slave States into the secession movement. She wants their money for the support of her aristocratic snobs in office.

We will suppose, for the sake of argument. that Kentucky has "submissionists" enough within her limits to submit to being "dragged" at the tail of South Carolina. How would the change affect our prosperity financially? The cost of supporting an army at all adequate for our defense, and of keeping up the civil list, would be enormous. It is safe to say, that a poll tax of at least forty dollars per annum would be levied upor every white male citizen of legal age, and this in addition to other necessary and ordipary taxes upon property. The Constitution of the Southern Confederacy will require s property qualification for voters, similar to the one South Carolina has always had. To qualify one for holding office, he must be rich, and the higher the office, the richer he must be. The poor man will be disqualified, not only for holding office, but he will not be permitted the poor privilege of voting for his rich neighbor, unless he (the poor man) has property enough to come up to the Soutl Carolina idea of what constitutes a freeman Although the South Carolina snobs regard poverty as a crime, they graciously allow and compelea poor man to pay his head tax be he never so poor. The condition of poor men in the Southern Confederacy will be like that of the serfs in Russia, and worse than that of the slaves in this: while the slave will have fully as many political privileges as the poor man, he will be supported by his master, and exempt from paying taxes What a paradise for honest poverty!

In connection with this view of the matter we desire the reader to call to mind every disunionist within his knowledge, and see what proportion of the number could vote under the South Carolina Constitution, or under a Constitution such as will be adopted for the Government of the new Confederacy. we always had, and ever shall retain, the most if there ever is one. Is it not an admitted profound veneration, and substituting in its stead fact that the most of the men who are making all this fuss about secession, are men of little or no projety? How many of all the men in Kentucky who desire to follow in the wake of South Carolina, because the South loses negroes, have negroes themselves to lose? We don't blame them for that, bu we do blame them for getting so excited over other people's business. Because the peo ple of the South lose many slaves per an num through the efforts of northern fanatics, southern fanatics would have the slave holder relinquish what protection he now has to his property, and rush headlong into a state of anarchy. Grant that we have not adequate protection to slave property now No man has demonstrated, and no man car demonstrate, that we should have any protection at all one moment after the breaking up of this Union.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES .- There is growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's gre Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in more general way, and the word Cephalic will be come as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born."

In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have la-bored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment or many of the west seems to be formulated. iment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: -

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, EEUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Af-fections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neu-BALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
